

Hello. I'm taking advantage of a web site constructed as part of an astroturf campaign by people who evidently only think that speech is free when it's speech they agree with. Their notion of one-sidedness is quite one-sided.

Sinclair Broadcast Group should be able to air "Stolen Honor" in its entirety if it wishes, and I hope that the FCC will not succumb to pressure from groups who wish to suppress speech with which they disagree.